Obituary

Glenn Edward Butler was born on September 29, 1946 to Benjamin E. Butler, Jr. and Christella Walker Butler in Charleroi, PA.

He attended the Belle Vernon School System up to the 8th Grade. He joined the Navy on November 21, 1963 and served until September 29, 1967. During this time he obtained his G. E. D. Later on he enrolled in New York University pursuing a degree in Psychology.

He moved to New York in 1969 and worked in Bellevue Hospital for many years as a Medical Records Supervisor. He also worked as a Security Guard for Fordham University.

In the 1970's he gave his life to Jesus and dedicated his time to working in the Prison Ministry, Men's Choir, Billy Roberts House of Hope (for Alcohol and Addiction) and was a faithful member of the Men's Sunday School Class. Glenn also preached and sang in many different churches in the New York area.

He was a man who received pleasure by helping others financially, socially, educationally, physically and emotionally. He was a lover of music and enjoyed lifting his voice to God in song.

Glenn departed this life on November 19, 2012 at 7:00 a.m., in the Veteran's Hospital in Brooklyn, NY.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one sister, Sandra Hewitt and one son, Glenn Butler, Jr.

He leaves to cherish his memory: two brothers, Benjamin W. Butler, Sr. (Bernice) of Braddock, PA. Michael L. Butler of Belle Vernon, PA; three sisters, Carla J. Snow, Pittsburgh, PA, Rozalind W. Butler, Fayette City, PA, Jacquelyn Butler, Belle Vernon, PA; a special cousin Harold Ware; a long time special friend, Velvor Rhone, NYC; special friends, Ronald Bowers, Nair Vargas, Burnet Rembert all of NY; cousins, nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, and a host of friends and his Church family, the Soul Saving Station.

We all love you Glenn. See you there!!

Lovingly submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
