Obituary

Lloyd Foster was born in New Orleans, on June 25th 1923 to Aubrey and Gwendolyn Foster. As a young child his parents brought him and his sister to New York City to make a better life. They had six more children.

Lloyd attended the New York School System in Manhattan. As a young man, Lloyd worked at different jobs in the Garment District. He never married or had any children of his own but he looked out for all of his siblings, nieces and nephews.

Helping in whatever way he could; for this we are grateful. As we get older our body deteriorates and Lloyd departed this life on Thanksgiving morning for a Heavenly Life that he was so much deserving of.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory: two sisters, Sylvia Scudder and Christina Hunter; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

He will be greatly missed.

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road, to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay... Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.*
