Obituary

Roosevelt “RoRo” Littles was born on September 4, 1964, to Charles Albert Littles and Carrie L. Haygood (deceased). He attended Evander Childes H.S., Bronx, NY, and graduated January 1984.

Determined to have his own money, he worked at the Food Emporium, New York while completing his education. After high school he held various jobs, as he was striving to better himself. In 1999 he acquired a position with Thelen, Reid & Priest, LLP., where he started in the mailroom and worked his way up to Security Coordinator, where he facilitated the security systems for the firm.

The youngest brother of five children, Roosevelt at times could be very quiet and content with being alone, never needing a crowd. He was a man of few words, but opinionated and aggressive when he spoke, which caused him to be misunderstood, and considered mean. Roosevelt loved his family, especially his nephews and nieces. Roosevelt was a person you really had to know, that it was just people skills he lacked and that he was not mean at all. He had a very sweet heart and a smile that would melt your heart.

On September 4th, his 30th birthday, he decided that he needed to be baptized. So, on that day, he visited the Greater Bibleway Temple and was baptized in the Name of Jesus, where Bishop Huie Rogers is Pastor.

In 2008, Roosevelt was diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis, which rendered him handicap, until his departure on November 22, 2012. Roosevelt leaves to mourn: two children, Elisha Littles-Jean and Davon Harris; son-in-law, Paul David Jean; four grandchildren, Savion Jean, Jalen Jean, Amaya Jean, Makayla Harris; four siblings, Rufus Haygood; sister-in-law, Althea Haygood, Ann Young and Margaret Parker; brother-in-law, Ya’el Williams and Betty Jean Haygood; two nephews, Derick McCullough and Jermaine Haygood; eight nieces, Yvonne Nelson, Trenise Haygood, Nakia Westray, (Michael Westray), Katina Parker, Yamisha Young, Shateeka Dukes, Aaliyah Haygood and Jahkara Haygood; one aunt, Alice Vick; and host of great nephews, nieces, cousins, friends and one special friend, Andre Jones of Virginia.

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.

"Your Loved Ones Deserve The Best - Unity"

Uncle RoRo

Even though you were a man of few words your actions spoke loud. Whenever you saw us you were concerned about our well being, and where we were headed in life. You always wanted to see us at our best. Whether it was completing our education or our professional endeavors. Uncle RoRo you were everything an uncle could be. It's hard to say good-bye, but we find solace with knowing you're in no more pain. God is getting a champion, Uncle RoRo. We are going to miss you so much, so sleep on uncle RoRo and we will meet again. We love you, always.

*Humbly submitted
The Nephews and Nieces*

RoRo, you looked at me one day and said, "You have been taking care of me since I was a little boy". But, now I give you over to God for He is the Master care taker.

(Baby girl)*

I told you that God was going to Heal You
