Reflections of Life

“And Lord haste the day when the faith shall be sight, the clouds be rolled back as a scroll, the trumpet shall resound and the Lord shall descend. Even so, it is well with my soul”

Mrs. Marguerite Elizabeth Walker Patrick was born August 2, 1915 to James H. Walker, Sr. and Florence Green Walker in Westfield, NJ.

The family later moved to New York City where Marguerite received and completed her education. She then worked for Goldberg Swimsuit Manufacturers where she eventually became a shop steward.

Marguerite met and married John Haskins Sr. and from that union came one son, John Haskins, Jr, who preceded her in death. She later married Newton Patrick and though there were no children, Marguerite was a mother figure to Patrick's five children, the daughter, Legorra has stayed close over the years.

Marguerite will long be remembered for her style, her kindness, her giving and her loving open heart.

Marguerite was a spiritual person who joined and was a dedicated member of Convent Avenue Baptist Church as a Bench Member. When she moved to Co-op City it was easier for her to worship nearer her home, she joined the Community Protestant Church and became a dedicated member of the New Yorkers Club and the Willing Workers.

Marguerite was predeceased by parents, James H. Walker, Sr. and Florence Green Walker; her brother, James H. Walker, Jr. and her son, John Haskins, Jr.

Marguerite leaves to cherish fond memories: a sister, Mrs. Eleanor Dunkley; a loving and devoted caregiver and sister-in-law, Mrs. Helen L. Walker; niece, Florence Washington; grandniece, Michele Washington, grandnephew, Brian Washington; stepdaughter, Legorra Thomas; two devoted cousins, Laura Green and Otelia Ruth; and a host of cousins, other relatives and devoted neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz DeSilva and devoted Home Health Aide, Norma Scarlet and friends.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

*Good friends, good times,
a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
