Obituary

Charles E. VanHorn, Jr., made his transition on December 30, 2012 at the Saint Barnabas Medical Center in Livingston, New Jersey.

Charles was born in Newark, New Jersey to the late Charles and Katherine VanHorn December 10, 1940.

He was one of four children, Catherine and Johnny VanHorn; who both preceded him in death and Gail (nee VanHorn) Battle.

Charles, affectingly known as Charlie was educated in the Newark Public School system.

Charlie was employed as a laborer by numerous industrial facilities in New Jersey and New York before his retirement.

Charlie was always well groomed with a flare for fashion. He loved the oldies music and enjoyed a good movie. He had an infectious laugh and a good sense of humor.

Charlie met and married his soul mate, Barbara, who was the love of his life and who preceded him in death. They enjoyed caring for their grandchildren and watching them grow up.

Charlie was the father of two sons, Roland Prather and Van Casso.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his devoted sister and caregiver, Gail; sons, Roland and Van; five grandchildren, Shateek, Kmel, Nasir, Jazsmine and Jody; two sisters-in-law; one brother-in-law; three nephews; one great nephew; two great nieces; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
