Obituary

Marie Minerve Hector Jean-Baptiste affectionately known as “Tante Minerve” was born May 28, 1933 in Petite-Riviere-De L'Atibonite. At the age twenty, she relocated to Port-Au-Prince Haiti, where she met the love of her life, Robert Mathieu Jean-Baptiste. She then traveled to Guadeloupe and lived there for many years, furthermore she journeyed to France for a couple of month then moved to Canada for many more years. Later, she went back to marry the love of her life, Robert Mathieu Jean-Baptiste. They both moved to Jamaica Queens, New York in 1984. Where they enjoyed many years of their life until her passing in 2013.

Minerve's life work was centered on helping others. She did not bare any children however he was the mother of many. She impacted everyone's lives that she came in contact with. She had a great and generous heart. She was very loyal to her family members. She helped many organizations like, The president Barack Obama's Kitchen Cabinet, St. Jude for cancer, veterans and salvation army.

Her exuberant personality and wit was often displayed in her role as mentors. Minerve loved life, she enjoyed traveling to many countries and attended many cultural art events. She had a passion for sawing especially wedding dresses.

To cherish her memories she left behind: her husband, Robert Mathieu Jean-Baptiste; one sister, Augusta Hector; many nieces, nephews, godchildren and a host of other relative and friends.

Lovingly submitted, the family.

Remember Me

*To the living, I am gone,
To the sorrowful I will never return,
I am at peace with myself and the Lord,
I cannot speak, but I can listen
I cannot be seen but I can be heard,
So remember me in your heart and thoughts,
Remember me in your memories,
Remember me of the times we loved,
Remember me of the times we laughed,
Remember me of the times we cried,
Remember me of the times we fought
And always remember me of the times we lived together.
I am resting in peace with the highest hope that some day we shall all unite again in God's Kingdom.*
