Obituary

Lillian P. Thomas (aka Peanut to all) was born on June 25, 1957 to the late Harold and Louise Thomas in Harlem, USA. On January 3, 2013 the Angel of Mercy came to lead her home.

Peanut's life was a full one of challenge and excitement, beginning as a student in NYC's Public Schools. She went on to work as a cook in different restaurants, then landed her job as a Custodial Engineer in NYC's court houses, where she remained until her untimely illness.

She was a devoted sister, aunt and friend who always had a smile on her face and would give anyone the hand they might need.

As Peanut goes to join her parents and her two sisters, Geraldine and Sylvia. She leaves to cherish her memory: two sisters, Albert and Valerie; five nephews, Glenn, Troy, Carlton, Tyrone and Rob; one niece, Deborah; brother-in-law, James Moore; and a host of great nieces, great nephews, cousins and friends.

*The hour came when Peanut called on the Lord and the Lord heard her cry and the Lord said
"Enough Is Enough"
And carried her home
So sleep on, sleep on in the bosom of Christ*

God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed
Those loving eyes and "whispered"
"Peace Be Thine"
The weary hours, the days of pain
The sleepless night and passed
The ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last.
