Obituary

Clinton Jones was born on September 13, 1944 to the late Minnie Bell Tarver and the late Eddie Jones in Bartow, Georgia. He attended school in Wadley, Georgia.

He was a positive role model and made people smile He was strong but humble.

He accomplished many goals in his life and was very independent.

He pursued several occupations until obtaining a position at Port Newark as a Longshoreman in 1969 where he was dubbed the name "Big Man" until he retired in 2005.

He was preceded in death by seven siblings and a son-in-law, Rand L. Packwood.

He will long be remembered by his family. He leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Freddie L. Jones of forty-nine years; six children, Lou Ellen Stallings (Darryl Stallings) of Pompano Beach, FL, Anthony Clinton Jones (Rhonda Jones) of Philadelphia, PA, Hope Jones-Packwood of Pocono Lake, PA, Sonovia Jones, Kevin Jones, and Keith Jones; three sisters, Emma Gaskins, Gladys Beasley of East Orange, NJ, Doris Turner of Irvington, NJ and one brother, Mr. & Mrs. Ed Wille Jones of North Carolina; eight grandchildren, one great grandchild, several sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law; and a abundance of nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews and many friends; a special pet named Blade which he affectionately called "Tinka".

*A golden heart stopped beating hard working hands now rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best*

*Humbly Submitted

"The Home Beyond"

*We feel so sad when those we love
Are called to live in the Home Above
But why should we grieve when they say good bye
And go to dwell in a cloudless sky?
For they but gone to prepare the way
And well meet them again some Happy Day
For God has told us that Nothing can sever
A life He created to live forever
So let God's promise soften our sorrow
And give us New strength for a Brighter Tomorrow.*
