Obituary

Charles Lee Jr., the son of Charles Lee, Sr. and the late Elizabeth Irby Lee was born along with his twin sister Charlotte E. Lee on April 1, 1949 in New York City.

Charles Lee, Jr. was affectionately known as “JUNEBUG” to everyone. Junebug received his formal education in NYC Public School System. Like many young people he made mistakes, mistakes that led to being away for many years. Upon his return, Junebug came back to The St. Nicholas Houses. The place where his fondest memories of family, friends and a time of a fun filled days of childhood were spent. Many of us are here today.

We all know Junebug as a fun loving, crazy and sometimes just plain silly kind of guy. He always had a smile on his face and something funny to say about anything and everything. That was Junebug.. He truly believed that he should have been a comedian. He loved to make people laugh. It can also be said that he liked to flirt with the ladies. Whether they took him serious or not, he really didn't seem to care as long as he made them laugh.

Yvette remembers a special conversation that she often had with her brother, it was their little private joke. She would say to him, “You think you a pimp, but you are Macaroni without the cheese,” and they would both just start laughing. I guess you had to be in on the joke!!! They were beginning to get closer and to really enjoy being brother and sister. Yvette, remember always, how special this last year was for you and Junebug.

Junebug is preceded in death by his uncle “June” Milton Irby, aunts Shirley Chancellor, Lenard Irby and Vernetta Cannon, his sisters Carolyn Lee Harris, Yvonne “LuLu” Lee, Charlotte Elizabeth Lee and her son Marcus Lee.

Junebug leaves to cherish many fond and loving memories: his father, Charles Lee, Sr.; sister, Yvette Lee; brother, Charlie; nieces and nephews, Tony, Chiffon, Terry, Phillip, Jerome and Pamela Lee; aunts, Jessie Arnold and Janet Lee; cousins, Debra and Steven Irby; The Queen family, Barbara, Ziggy, Wanda and Yolanda; childhood friends Arnez Henderson, Rudy Bruce, Cathy Yates, Ernest Edwards, Phil Mickey, Johnny Yates and a very special person, Renee Jones and her grandson, Julian Washington. As well as everyone here today. The family also acknowledges and thanks Jimmy “Head” a very dear family friend.

*To all my family and friends please don't cry, I'm not really gone.
When you look out the window, I'll be standing on the lawn.
Please don't cry, I'll see you again. Don't be sad keep up your chin.
Please don't cry, I'm not really dead.
When crying yourself to sleep, I'll be by your bed.
Please don't cry just because we had to part.
As long as you remember me, I'll always live in your heart.
Please don't cry, I'm not gone forever.
I'll be a cool Breeze in summer weather. Please don't cry, don't run and hide when you need a shoulder to lean on.
I'll be by your side. Please don't cry when your weak,
I'll be there to kiss you on the cheek. Please don't cry, this is just a goodbye.
So please oh please, family and friends don't cry.*
