

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*

Obituary

Dorothy Alexander Brown, born May 3, 1924 to Rushell Johnson and John Henry Alexander, the fourth of ten children. Dorothy was born and raised in Newark, New Jersey and graduated from Central High School. She was married to the late Harold Brown, Sr. She was the loving, nurturing and caring mother of six children. She was a strong advocate for education and believed that her children should excel academically.

Dorothy was a talented beautician certified in cosmetology. She had a passion that extended above and beyond doing hair for family as well as friends. She was employed at New Jersey Bell Telephone Company for approximately twenty-three years. She was a loyal dedicated employee who received several promotions during her career. She had a domesticated spirit, with a specific affinity for arts and crafts crocheting beautifully crafted afghans, which she shared with relatives, as well as friends. Dorothy maintained a meticulously clean home inside and out. She enjoyed train rides to New York to the horse races. She loved to shop and always purchased items of quality. As a result of her upbringing, Dorothy insisted on purchasing quality items that would last.

She accepted Jesus as her personal Savior and Lord.

She was predeceased by three sons, Ronald, Lawrence and Kevin.

Dorothy leaves to cherish her precious memories: one daughter, Jeanette Lamb; two sons, Abdul Uthman and Eugene; one sister, Jean Nourse of North Carolina; seven grandchildren; eleven great grandchildren; her long time companion, Reginald Harris; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

Dorothy was cared for in her later months by Lucy Davis. A special thank you to Tauheedah Uthman, Sandra Cheatham, Tiffany Greivous, Diane Johnson, Kalia Jackson and Royce Jackson for their consistent support to Dorothy and Eugene.

While we are going to miss Dorothy Brown, we are confident that she is not missing. She is safe in the arms of our Father.
