Obituary

Betty Hubanks Evans was a wonderful woman who lived a long rich life filled with love, challenges, and adventures. She was survived by her daughter, Mary Lynn Evans; son, James Evans; grandsons, Jamel Evans and Jason Barnett, and his wife, Wanda Barnett; niece, Betty Jean Harris and her husband, Edward Sankowski; Linda Diana Harris- Alexander; Patricia Ann Harris – Holland and many more loving family and friends.

She was born to parents, Eulalie Ingram Hubanks and Kenneth Hubanks in Chicago, Illinois on September 10, 1930. At the tender age of six, the whole family relocated to Sparta, Georgia. While living in Sparta, she attended Hancock Central High School and Paine College. In 1950, Betty met and married her husband, Charlie Clyde Evans. After they were married, she and her husband relocated to New York and resided in Harlem. Together they had four children, Charles, Cheryl Anne, Mary and James Evans. In 1972, Betty garnered her first job as a Jewelry Maker in Manhattans 34th Street. She went to work as a Jewelry Maker for ten years. She then retired and decided to work from home as a personal tax preparer, for family and friends, until the age of eighty one.

There are a few words that help describe Betty Evans: caring, compassionate, and loving. She will be forever known as a kind and gentle soul who would extend her heart and spirit to anyone in need of her time. She was a great friend to many people. Everyone knew Betty, it was hard not to friend her. Her spirit was so strong that when she walked into a room you felt her presence. As a loving mother and nurturer, she cared for her son, James Evans who had a long history of medical ailments, until her untimely passing. Even in her last days, she would laugh and smile even though she was in pain. I believe that every person in their own unique way create a legacy in their lifetime by which others can live long after that person has left us. For those who remain, Betty Evans has truly created a legacy to uphold and fulfill in our daily lives. Although she is no longer with us her legacy will live on through the many she touched throughout her life.

WHEN TOMORROW STARTS WITHOUT ME

*When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see;
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me.
I wish so much you wouldn't cry the way you did today;
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say,
I know how much you love me, As much as I love you;
And each time that you think of me, I know you'll miss me too;
But when tomorrow starts without me
Please try to understand, That an angel came and called my name, and took me by the hand,
And said my place was ready in heaven far above;
And that I would have to leave behind all those I dearly love.
When I walked thru Heavens gates I felt so much at home;
When God looked down and smiled
From his great golden Throne, He said:
"This is eternity, and all I've promised you;
Today your life on Earth is past, but here it starts anew;
There is no past or future here, but one eternal NOW,
For in My presence, precious child, this day will always last."
So when tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart, for every time you think of me, I'm right there near your heart;
And I knowing now as God knows me;
will joyfully watch you serving Him,
Till we are joined together in this wonderful place called Eternity!!*
