Obituary

Ivylyn Eunicy Williams was a lovely woman, she embodied all of life's natural ways of a perfect woman. She was caring, thoughtful, hardworking, compassionate, loving and so much more. It is difficult to think of all of the words to describe a person that means so much to us.

She was born February 9, 1926, in St. Cathrine Jamaica W.I. to Ethlyn Nicklos and Henry Williams. Being the last of three girls we can say that Ivylyn (Ivy) may have been spoiled. She attended All Saints Primary School to later attend school for fashion.

Ivylyn put aside her dream of becoming a fashion designer for her kids Enid, Inez and Errol. She was always there for her children. She was always up early to help prepare them for school, she would make sure to help them with homework while preparing dinner. She also made sure that she would study hard and have healthy activities to do after school.

She later migrated to the Bahamas October of 1966. Where she was able to get back a little piece of her dream of being a fashion designer, by becoming a seamstress while managing Peggy's Fashion World. Being the loving caring person we know she made friends quickly. The kids in the neighborhood would call her "Aunt Ivy" she loved to teach these kids how to sew while sharing her favorite chocolate bar "snickers".

Being away in the Bahamas from her family for so long, she decided to migrate to the USA June of 1990. Where she was reunited with Inez Enid and grandchildren, until she became ill and then resided to Holliswood Nursing Home.

On January 4, 2013 Ivylyn Williams was set free and taken into the hands of the Lord to her eternal home. She would always be remembered by her sister, three children, eight grandchildren, fifteen great grandchildren, one great great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, friends, family and lots of loved ones.

Ivy you are gone but you are never forgotten.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

If my parting has left a void,

Then fill it up with remembered joy.

A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,

Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,

God wanted me now, He set me free!
