Obituary

Dorothy L. Williams, sixty-nine passed away peacefully Thursday, January 10, 2013 at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital in New York, NY.

Born September 3, 1943 in Augusta, GA. She resided in Youngstown, Ohio, before moving to New York, NY in 1961.

She was employed at Calvary Hospital in Bronx, NY. She left Calvary Hospital to be employed at Fannie Farmer as a Manager in the World Trade where she retired.

She loved to dress to impress and loved to cook. She enjoyed remembering birthdays of family and friends with tokens of love, but most of all spending time with her family as well as traveling.

She will be sadly missed by her son, Tyrone Williams of New York City; two grandsons, Jason Williams and De'Andre Williams of New York City; a brother, Alexander Williams of Pontiac, Michigan; a sister, Shirley Jenkins of Youngstown, Ohio; several nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews; and a host of friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Henry A. Williams and Lula M. Williams; two sisters, Lula M. (Williams) Reid and Mary E. (Williams) Morgan; and a daughter, Teri Williams.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
