Obituary

Once again our heavenly Father plucked a beautiful flower from His garden. On Thursday night January 17th 2013 at approximately 7:30 p.m. He called Betty home to take her eternal rest, our mother, grandmother, great grandmother, sister, aunt and friend. Everyone always called her “BJ”. She was always willing to give you a helping hand. She will be dearly missed.

She was born on December 5th 1941 to the late Lane and Mary Frances Bryant. Betty was preceded in death by three brothers, Willie Lane Bryant, James Edward Bryant and Wendell Bryant and one sister, Annie Grace Marshall.

Betty received her education in Sampson County School system and from then she worked at the Recreation Center (Teenage Club with Mr. Bill Bellamy for many years.) Than she went to Lundy’s Packing Company up until she retired. She also worked at Mary Gran Nursing Center for many years.

After she retired she went into ministry. She counseled people until her health began to fail. She didn’t turn anyone down and was always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone no matter what race. She had helped a lot of men while that were incarcerated. She will be sorely missed.

She leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Deborah Bryant (Romeo); grandsons, James “J baby” Garner (Amanda) and Romeo “Frisbee” Garner; three great grandchildren, Zakiya, Romeo Garner and Amion Love Bell; three sisters, Alice Frances Kirby (Clinton, NC), Martha Edna Bryan (Clinton, NC), Mary Ellen Parker (Salemburn, NC), Bevelyn Rose Watson (Clinton, NC), Kenneth Watson, (Clinton, NC) and Douglas Watson (Clinton, NC); and a host of nieces and nephews; special nephews, Lewis Marshall (Linda), Wendell Rich Jr.; Special nieces, Edna Marshall, Princy Marshall; special Denise Raynor, Lubie Butler, Lisa Underwood.

I miss and love you Grandma

*I sat beside your bedside,
My heart was crushed and sore;
I did my best to the end, until I couldn't do no more.*

*In tears I watched you sinking
I watched you fading away;
And though my heart was breaking*

*I knew you couldn't stay
You left behind me your baby,
and a aching heart, that loved you most sincere,
We never shall and never will forget your my mother dearest.*

*I love you, your daughter
Robie*

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to thank each and everyone of you for your expressions of love. No matter what you did, it is and always will be greatly appreciated during their bereavement. May God richly pour out his blessing upon you.
