Cynthia S. Loyal (Cyn Cyn) was born on February 18, 1953 to the late Ernest and Ivy Berry, in Clara Maass Hospital in Newark, NJ. She was the youngest of two children.

In 1969, Cynthia Berry met Charles Loyal and they were married in 1972. Out of their union, they had two children, Derrick and Janaya.

Cynthia was educated in the Newark School System, where she graduated from Weequahic High School, at the age of sixteen. Upon graduating, she attended Essex County College where she received her Associate Degree.

Cyn Cyn devoted her life to her husband, her children, and especially her grandchildren. She was all about family. She loved her home to be filled with the laughter of her grandchildren. Throughout her life, many people have been touched by her kind heart and gentle spirit. She will always be remembered for her sweet, infectious smile that would light up a room. God's Garden

God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,
so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered
"Peace be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you
but you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
the day God called you home.
