Obituary

Karlando Fabian Roberts was born to parents Norma and Vincent Roberts on the 7th of February 1981 at St. Andrews Memorial Hospital in Kingston Jamaica, West Indies. He was called by the family “Joe” or “Pungu”. He spent his early childhood at Fairdene Avenue Kingston where he attended Marvaley Basic School and moved on to the Pembroke Hall Primary School.

He later moved to Eltham View in Spanish Town where he started attending Pembroke Hall High School. After graduating, he migrated to the United States of America where he resided in Newark, New Jersey. He later moved to Hill Side, Irvington where he met the love of his life, Takesha Mahotiere. They have been together for thirteen years and married for seven years.

Joe brought Joy to everyone he met. He was kind, loyal, affectionate, loving, giving, caring, hard working, and a good listener not to mention his quietness. His career was Electrician that he loved so dearly. Whenever time he worked for anyone; they always commended him because he sees to it that the job was done properly.

He loved to give jokes and we always listened to him keenly; he speaks with a stuttering tongue especially when his mom, Pastor Roberts came up from Jamaica and cooked the delicious food. He would say “Mom long time me no eat dis” “Mom dis bad” meaning it is so good. Joe loves good food Jamaican style.

He was blessed to have a wonderful mother-in-law, France Mahotiere and a grandmother-in-law, Gloria Lapaix. They treated each other like mother and son.

Joe was the third of four children by his mom. From a tender age he was very talented. He and his older brother, Richard always pulled down radios and bring it back together.

Its seems like Joe knew that he was going to leave us soon. He talked to his mom in Jamaica Friday, Saturday, and Sunday morning January 13, 2013. His mom told him to go to church which he and his wife did and he was prayed for. Later, Joe told his mother he accepted the Lord in his life and as of now he will be going to church every Sunday.

Monday morning on January 14, 2013, he said his last goodbye. Joe left behind his wife, mother, stepfather, sisters, brothers, mother-in-law, father-in-law, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends to mourn.

Joe is gone to soon; sadly miss by all. Your memories will always be in our hearts. Goodbye Joe may your soul rest in peace.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
