

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever

Obituary

Nicie Lee Evans was born December 28, 1933 in Greenville, North Carolina. She was called home to be with her Lord and Savior on January 20, 2013.

Nicie was a loving homemaker and mother who cherished her grand and great grandchildren. She was a passionate woman of faith who enjoyed sewing, traveling, and spending time with her loved ones. She was known for her excellent cooking skills and proudly showed her love for others through the many meals she cooked for family and friends. She is loved and will be missed by all who knew her.

She leaves to cherish her memories: eight children, Peggy Lee Scott Newberry (Terrence), Charlie, Ella, Thomas, Angela, Raymond, and Christine Cherry, and Dorothy Mintz (Jevon); three sisters, Phoebe King, Margaret Dennis, and Beulah Norfleet; six grandchildren, Lamont Scott, Janiella Shirley, Anitra Clark, Maurice Cherry, and Eboni and Jazmine Mintz; three great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
