Obituary

Paul Charles Brown, 68, was born on March 20, 1944 to the late Henry Lloyd and Margaret Brown in New York City. He was their only child.

Paul was employed by Sol's Pharmacy, where he was surrounded by many people he recognized as his friends and extended family. He graduated high school in Long Island.

Paul met Georgiana Seeley in 1962 and to this union was born his two daughters, Darlene and Sharon.

After a brave and courageous fight, Paul Brown departed this life on Monday, January 22, 2013 in Albert Einstein Hospital. He was preceded in death by his father, Henry and his mother, Margaret.

Paul loved sports. He was a die hard Giants, Knicks, Jets and Nets fan! He also loved his X-Box. There was not a game that he did not own or thought he could not win. Paul was also a lover of pet fish.

He leaves to cherish his memory: his two daughters, Darlene and Sharon; two grandsons, Timothy and Ashiem; four great-grandchildren, Shanelle, Timothy III, Shanice, and Timia; along with a host of other relatives and friends.

Dad, I Miss You.....

You never said "I'm leaving"
You never said "goodbye"
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knew why.

There are no words to tell you
Just what I feel inside
The shock, the hurt, the anger
Might gradually subside

A million times I'll need you
A million times I'll cry
If Love alone could have saved you
You never would have died

In Life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart you hold a place
That no one could ever fill

It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone
For part of me went with you
The day God took you home

Things will never be the same
And all though it hurts so bad
I will smile whenever I hear your name
And be proud you were my Dad.
