Obituary

On January 18, 2013 the Lord called his son, Robert Lee Robinson home. Robert went to be with the Lord peacefully at home, after a brief hospital stay at Lincoln Hospital. Robert (AKA Flap and Big Robert by his wife) was born January 24, 1934 to Ida and William Robinson in Richmond, VA.

Robert came to New York in 1964. He worked for the Virginia Department of Highway until 1964. He left Richmond, VA and settled in the Bronx, NY until his demise. He owned and operated his own medallion cab for thirty-five years and also worked as a mechanic as a Transmission and Motors Specialist. Robert retired in 1995.

In June 1983, he met his wife, Laverne the love of his life. Through this marriage there were thirty years of blessed happiness. This union marriage was solid as a rock. He had an undying love for wife Laverne.

Robert was extremely God loving, family oriented, generous and giving. He loved his wife, children and grandchildren more than anything. He loved him some Latanya and Tawana, they were his world. His mother gave him a Bible at the age of six and said "This is your book of Life". Curiosity lead to him reading the bible which he completed by nine years old. Robert always said "If you lead your life with and read your Bible nothing in life will surprise you". "You're prepared for everything life gives you". Robert loved his children and grandchildren with all his heart and soul.

He loved watching racing, the history channel, playing chess (with the computer), Giants, Mets, Jets and Western Channel and History Channel. He also loved reading books. Most importantly, he loved attending family reunions with his family.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Laverne; three daughters, Anita, Tawana and Latanya; grandchildren, Tyree, Sean Roberson Jr., Tequila and Tevin; sister, Alice; brother, Willie; son-in-law, Sean Roberson, Sr.; and a host of other relatives including grandnieces and grandnephews.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call*

I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

*To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.*

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.*

*Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
