

To Those I Love

To those I love and those that love me,
 When I am gone, release me, let me go
 I have so many things to see and do
 You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears
 Be happy that we had so many years.
 I gave you my love, you can only guess
 How much you gave me in happiness
 I thank you for the love you each have shown
 But now it's time I travel alone
 So grieve for a while for me if you must
 Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
 It's only for a while that we must part
 So bless the memories within your heart
 I won't be far away, for life goes on
 So if you need me, call and I will come
 Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near
 And if you listen with your heart you'll hear
 All my love around you so soft and clear
 And then, when you must come this way alone
 I'll greet you with a smile and say,
 "Welcome Home."

Obituary

Adetutu Shakirat Akanke Okusanya was born on November 24th 1961 into the Royal Family of Alhaji Bisiriyu Adekunle Kuku and Alhaja Sidikat Adunni Kuku (Nee Adekoya) of Ijebu-Ode Ogun State, Nigeria. She was born the fourth of five children. Mr. Ademola Kuku (brother), Mrs. Sherifat Animushaun (deceased), Mrs. Bimpe Agboola (sister), Mr. Segun Kuku (brother), Mrs. Olabisi Fayemi (Houston, TX) Mr. Ade Adekoya (Chicago, IL).

She attended High School of Muslim College of Ijebu-Ode from 1977-1981. She worked at Lagos State Ministry of Finance, Revenue Department from 1982-1986.

Adetutu was very adventurous woman. She enjoyed trading and traveling all around the world. During her youth, she has traveled and lived in Italy, France, Austria, England, Switzerland, just name a few. She returned back home to Nigeria where she met the love of her life Babatunde Alfred Okusanya. Together they moved to the US in 1987 to soon start their fruitful family.

Shortly after settling in the US, Adetutu accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior. She was a very prayerful and spiritual woman. She was an active and devoted prayer warrior of Christ Glory International Ministries, where she loved and feared the Lord. She worshiped and built strong spiritual relationships with the members of the congregation and loved them dearly.

With faith and guidance from the Lord, Adetutu obtained her Nursing Degree at Somerset County College. Soon after, she strived and worked hard at various healthcare facilities to provide for her family. Her last employer was Delany Hall Correctional Facility of Newark, NJ.

When Adetutu was not serving the Lord at church or working hard she enjoyed socializing with friends, shopping, cooking, cleaning, interior decoration, traveling and enhancing her taste in the fine arts. But most of all she enjoyed spending genuine and quality time with her children.

Her legacy is lived through by her children, Felicia Yetunde Okusanya, Suzanne Folashade Okusanya and Emanuel Oluwatobiloba Okusanya.

Adetutu was a very humble, respectable honorable and generous woman. She impacted everyone’s life that she encountered in the smallest to the biggest ways. She cared deeply for people and appreciated what others did for her. Her elegance, and beautiful smile warmed many hearts. Her hardworking spirit inspired and motivated others to accomplish great things. Her legacy will live on forever and may her soul rest in perfect heavenly peace.
