Obituary

Louis White was born June 3, 1933 in Bonneau, South Carolina to the late Washington and Hannah Elizabeth White. He passed away on January 26, 2013.

Louis went to school in Berkeley County, South Carolina and after graduating from High School he moved to New York City where he worked in the garment district. Soon after moving to New York he met Adeline Kinnley and Louis and Adeline were married on October 12, 1957. From that union, they produced three children, Cynthia, Diane and Joyce.

Louis was a wonderful father to his three girls and they have fond memories of their childhood growing up in New York. After each one moved away, Louis continued to tell them “keep up your good work and always take care of mommy.”

After Louis began studying the Bible with Jehovah’s Witnesses, he was baptized in 1992. He served as a Ministerial Servant in the Park Congregation and auxiliary pioneered as often as he could. Due to his zeal and success in the ministry, he was well known in the community and territory where he preached.

Louis is survived by: his loving wife of fifty-five years, Adeline White; two brothers, Willis White and Freddie White; a sister, Betty White; daughters, Cynthia Limehouse (Jerome) of Tampa, Florida, Diane White of Ridgeville, South Carolina and Joyce Lee (David) of Kinston, North Carolina; he also leaves behind nine grandchildren, Shakeya, Tiffany, Stephanie, Jasmine, David IV, Chelsie, Jason and Miles all of whom affectionately called him “Grandboobie”; three great-grandchildren, Najeh, Jayden and Nathaniel; as well as nieces, nephews and cousins.

The White family also give special thanks to Joseph and Diane Batson who visited Louis in the nursing home, Joyce Davis whose support was unsurpassed and long time, loyal friends Jennifer and Eartha Jackson.

John 11:23-26

*Jesus said to her: "Your brother will rise."
Martha said to him: "I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus said to her:
"I am the resurrection and the life.
He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies,
will come to life; and everyone that is living
and exercises faith in me will never die at all.
Do you believe this?"*

Revelation 21:4

*And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,
and death will be no more, neither will mourning,
nor outcry, nor pain be any more.
The former things have passed away."*

Acknowledgement

We extend heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the loving support, encouragement and prayers on our behalf. All of us look forward to the resurrection hope; the time when we will welcome our beloved Louis back to a paradise earth.
