Reflections of Life

Natasia Alese Gaddy, was born on April 25, 2007 at St. Joseph Hospital in Paterson, NJ to the parents of Norman and Tam Gaddy.

She was presently attending Kindergarten at Donald E. Quarles School in Englewood.

Natasia BKA (Tay Tay) favorite hobbies were dressing up her doll babies in different outfits and jewelry and displaying them as models. She was a model herself at heart. She loved to color, sing and praise dance.

Tay also attended service at Crowned with Glory International Ministries along with her family she served on the usher board and also as a praise flag dancer at church. In her spare time she loved to spend time with her favorite cousins Im'Unique, Khole and Markieya. She always looked forward to spending as much time as she could with her father.

Tay Tay was her nickname and Lil Princess. She will forever be missed and in our hearts. She was one of a kind.

She leaves behind: her father, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, god parents; and a host of friends and family.

Tam Marie Pitts was born in Englewood, New Jersey on June 30, 1972 to the parents of James and Rosena Pitts. She was the youngest of the four children.

She attended Dwight Morrow High School and graduated in the year of 1990. Tam pursued her career in the cosmetology field as well as the early child care field. She has a great love for helping other people. In doing so she met her husband, Norman Gaddy and became united as one in holy matrimony. She gave birth to one of God's beautiful Angels Natasia Alese Gaddy whom was their little princess whom they loved dearly.

Tam gave her life to the Lord in 2007. She served with Crowned With Glory International Ministries, under the leadership of Pastor Angele Frazier Tanner. She served on the missionary board, she was a youth leader, choir director and in the outreach ministries and gave a helping hand when needed. She was presently employed at John Lucky Bus Company in Hackensack, NJ.

Tam had a spirit that drew young people to her, she was well known as a fun, outgoing, energetic neighborhood auntie who everyone loved and could count on.

Tam leaves to cherish behind: her husband, Norman Gaddy; parents, James and Rosena Pitts; three siblings, Belinda Merritt (Robert) of Charlotte, NC, Pastor Angele Frazier Tanner (Broderuck) of Englewood, NJ and Keith Pitts (Andrea) of Englewood, NJ; mother-in-law, Ellen Gaddy; sister-in-law, Shanon Gaddy; and a host of nieces and nephews, Keiona, Rihay, Racquel, Daquan, Robert, Jr., Aleeshia, Alexis, K.T. Elijah, Karon, Im'Unique and Jamod; a host of aunts and uncles, cousins, cousins-in-law, godchildren, godparents, friends and family; three best friends, Alice Haskins, Latonya Brow and Felicia Smith.

My Farewell

*Our family circle has been broken
link has gone from our chain;
But though we are parted for a while,
We know we will meet again.
Sometimes it's hard to understand why certain things must be but there is a reason for it all,
beyond our power to see.
The cover of life's book is closed for one we loved so well; But the loving deeds of by-gone days are what the pages tell.
The blow was hard, the shock severe;
We never thought your death was so near.
But only those who have lost can tell
The pain of parting without farewell.*
