Obituary

Roberto Francis was the youngest of four children. He was born June 7, 1924 to Geraldo and Baudilia Francis in San Juan, Puerto Rico. His oldest brother, Arturo Francis preceded him in death.

His sister, the second oldest, Julia B. Francis Torres lives in Queens and his brother, Leonel Francis lives in Brooklyn. His mother Baudilia hailed from Puerto Rico and his father from St. Thomas, Virgin Islands.

After graduating high school he joined his father working at a gas station in San Juan. He worked many jobs before joining the United States Army at the age of eighteen. After he was honorably discharged from the Army, he studied administration, refrigeration and electrical work at the University of Puerto Rico.

Before coming to work in New York, Roberto Francis met Evaluz Trinidad through her sister, Helena. Roberto and Eva dated for less than a year before getting married in 1951.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories: his spouse, Evaluz Francis; four biological sons; one biological daughter; four adopted sons; four adopted daughters; and a host of grandchildren, other relatives and friends. In addition, one special son, Gregory Medley who was his care taker.

Psalm 121

I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night. The Lord shall preserve thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even for evermore.
