Obituary

Denzal W. Waller was born on October 29, 1932 in Boydton, Virginia, the second of three children.

As a young boy, his parents relocated to Newark, NJ and there he received his formal education in the Newark School system.

He attended Metropolitan Baptist Church and worked for NJ Bell (Verizon) for about twenty-four years until his retirement. Denzal spent most of his retirement years reading, relaxing and enjoying the moment, due to health problems.

In 1952, Denzal met Quinaveer Garrett and they wed in 1953. Through this union they had two children, Colleen Katherine Freeman of Dallas, TX and Tracy Glen Waller of Linden, NJ.

God called him home in the early hours of February 1, 2013, relieving him of pain and suffering. May he be rewarded for his good deeds while here on earth.

Denzal leaves to cherish his memory two daughters, Colleen Katherine Freeman and Tracy Glen Waller; one sister, Thelma Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one,
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when day is done.
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave behind,
When the day is done.*
