Reflections of Life

Alexander Seymour fondly known as “Uncle Ralph” or “Mr. Seymour” to family and friends was born on August 18, 1932 in the Parish of St. Mary Jamaica, West Indies to the late Mr. and Mrs. Finyest Seymour. He was the fourth of five children.

As a young man, Mr. Seymour worked for the Coca Cola Bottling Company. A job that would span two countries. After migrating to the United States in 1965, he continued to work for Coca Cola which at the time was located on Route 20 N. in Paterson, NJ. He would eventually retire from Coca Cola after several decades of service.

In the early seventies Mr. Seymour was known for his famous basement parties that he always threw until 1975. Being the entertainer he was, Mr. Seymour left the basement for a bigger venue the “Wayside Lounge.” He ran the Wayside Lounge for many years. Mr. Seymour was the kind of person that would serve you even if you didn’t have any money. He was giving and would sometimes put others before himself. Despite his struggle with diabetes, Mr. Seymour was still living life to the fullest traveling to Jamaica and Florida to visit family and friends as well as hanging out at his favorite spot on Tenth Ave. In early 2000, Mr. Seymour accepted the Lord as his Saviour and was baptized.

He was preceded in death by his son, Chev, daughter, Edna, sister, Agatha and step daughter, Maureen.

Mr. Alexander Seymour departed this life on Tuesday, January 29, 2013 quietly at home.

He leaves to cherish wonderful memories: his loving wife of forty-four years, Mabel Seymour; daughters, Angela “June”, Sonia, Jackey and son, Leroy. He also leaves a special great grandson, Desan Lewis that was always there for him, along with his other grandchildren, great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins that he loved and adored. He was a great man and lived a long and happy life. He will surely be missed.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
