Obituary

Fannie B. Curry was born on August 17, 1927 to the late James Lane and Fannie Wright-Lane in Emanuel County, Georgia. She was called home from this earth on Wednesday, January 30, 2013.

As a young woman seeking better employment Fannie B. relocated to New York City. She found stable work at BMS Brush Co. She retired after twenty-five years of service.

Fannie B. loved to entertain. She was the life of the party. If you ever met her you wouldn't forget her. She was the glue of the family. The rock which you could always depend on. A helper to all, friends and family alike. "She was a woman in her shoes" her favorite saying.

Those left to mourn Miss Fannie B. are: loving daughter, Susie Lane; grandson, Darren Shelton; great-grandchildren, Branden and Aurora Shelton; niece, Dorris Curry whom was very special to Fannie; as well as several other surviving nieces and nephews.

Those preceding Miss Fannie B. in death are: brothers, Buster, James and Preston, sisters, Juanita, Dorothy and Susie Mae, husband, Homer Curry along with her life long companion, Tommy Jubelee.

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is something that no one can Explain, it is made deep devotion and sacrifice and pain, it is endless and unselfish and enduring

Come what may for nothing can destroy it or take that love away...

It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking, and it never fails or falters even Though the heart is breaking...it believes beyond believing when

The world around condemns, and glows with
All the beauty of the rarest, brightest gens...

It is far beyond definIng, it defies all

Explanation, and it still remains a secret

Like the mysteries of Creation... a many Splendored miracle man cannot understand
And another wondrous evidence of God's

Tender guiding hand.
