Psalm 48: 1,2, 14

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised in the city of our God, in the mountain of His holiness.

Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great King.

For this God is our God for ever and ever: He will be our guide even unto death.

In Loving Memory
of Nathaniel Greene

Lift up your hands to Jesus:

On Saturday, February 2, 2013 at the Jewish Memorial Rehabilitation Center in New York City, Nathaniel Greene, a beloved brother and father, entered into that beautiful city into the presence of God.

He was the son of the late Cecil and Maude Green. He was born in Denmark, SC on January 9, 1934 and attended Voorhees Elementary & High School. Years later, he migrated to Brooklyn, NY. He met and married Alice Williams. From that union they were blessed with three children.

Nate was employed by the New York Times as a Shaper. He had a zest for life and lived and enjoyed it to the fullest, he was a loving husband and devoted father, he had a special bond with his sisters, Bert and Jet as he called them.

God looked around His garden and found an empty space. Then looked down upon the earth and saw your smiling face. He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, for He only takes the best. It broke our hearts to lose you but you did not go alone. For part of us went with you the day God took you home.

Nate leaves to cherish his memory: two sisters, Bertha Atterberry of NYC and Jessie Fortson of New Hartford, NY; two daughters and one son, Velisa Greene of Brooklyn, NY, Valerie Rophlin of Hinesville, GA and Keith Greene of Staten Island, NY; four grandchildren, four aunts, one uncle; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Sleep on Nate and take your rest

*Nate, you went on before us
But we will meet you there
The day that Jesus is crowned
Lord of Lords and King of Kings
We will be there
We thank God for having a brother like you
And for the precious years that we shared,
Til we meet again, our friend, our brother.*

Acknowledgements

You gave so much you reduced our sorrow and you increased our faith. You brought words of encouragement and your acts of kindness were many. We accept them as priceless gems of friendship. May GOD continue to richly bless, lead and guide you!
