Obituary

Robert March Jr. was born July 28, 1934 in Bishopville, South Carolina to the late Willie White and the late Ellenora March-Dixon. Robert was the eldest of two sons. He attended The Dennis High School in Bishopville, SC and upon graduation worked for The Lee County Memorial Hospital. He enlisted in the United States Army and was Honorably Discharged in 1960.

Robert met and married Ms. Susie Jenkins and to this union four children were born. He was a member of The Liberty Hill Baptist Church in Bishopville, South Carolina. He decided to move his family to New York City, NY for a better life and worked as a Garage Manager for twenty-five years until retiring in 2001.

Robert March will be greatly missed. He touched many lives. He leaves to mourn: his devoted wife, Mrs. Susie March; three daughters, Mrs. Pekoia Jenkins, Ms. Patricia Scarborough and Ms. Deborah March (predeceased); three sons, Mr. Terry March, Mr. Christon March and Mr. Bernard Scarborough; one daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cassandra March; five grandsons, Craig, Nicholas, Terrence, Taurean and Christon Jr.; two granddaughters, Deashia and Necole; one great grandson, Jacquinn. He also leaves to mourn a loving brother, Mr. Willie Dixon; two brothers-in-law, Leland and Robbie; three sisters-in-law, Flora, Mae Thelma and JessieBelle; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Our Father's Garden

Our father kept a garden,
A garden of the heart.
He planted all good things,
That gave our lives a start.

He turned us to the sunshine,
Encouraged us to grow.
In hopes that we will flourish
And let the whole world know

We are our Father's garden
And now we all can see
That this bright shining garden
Is Robert March Legacy
