Obituary

Mrs. Ethel Carter was born on July 4, 1930 in Danville, VA to the late Eva and Albert Childress. She was the third of four children. She was educated in the public schools of Danville.

She married James E. Carter Sr. in 1951. She was baptized at an early age by Sister Midget King in a small church in her home town. In 1961, she migrated to New York and in 1963 worked as a sleep-in home health aide in Great Neck, NY. She eventually moved to the city in 1965.

Ethel joined Mount Neboh Baptist Church in 1972, under the leadership of the late Rev. William D. Gardner, after a member who went by the name of "Prince" invited her to attend worship. She was a committed tither and served faithfully in the First Senior Choir, the Sunday School Ministry and the soup kitchen.

She loved to cook, eat, and watch her sports. Her favorite baseball team was the NY Mets and her favorite football team was the NY Giants. All her favorite activities were done with her favorite drink, a Diet Pepsi. She was fashionable and classy and would never be caught without a matching hat, bag and shoes on Sunday morning. She had a great sense of humor and was well known for speaking her mind. She was very proud of her family and boasted greatly of all their accomplishments.

Ethel leaves to mourn: her three children, Minister Willie J. Carter (Gladdis), Bishop James E. Carter (Barbara) and Constance L. Brown; she also leaves to cherish her memory, her grandchildren, Linwood Darnell Walker (Sue), Teresa Newton (Alford), Michele Chapman (William), LaTosha Bell (Diamond), Chacoby Carter, Travis Carter (Mychele), Tina Carter, Odessia Brown and Daphne Brown; she leaves eleven great-grandchildren to bear her legacy; she also leaves to mourn her passing, her sister-in-law, Mary Cherry (Newark, NJ) and her four close friends, Evalene Mann (Alabama), Lily B. Hanna (Washington, D.C.), Doris Hill (New York) and Lester Carter (New York); and a host of relatives and dear friends.
