Obituary

Jeremiah McDermott was born on May 22, 1942 in St. Catherine, Jamaica, to the proud parents of Cecil & Ruth McDermott. He attended his early education at Jubilee All Age School. He enjoyed sports and was an excellent cricketer player in High School. After high school he played and was one of the All Stars on the Jubilee Adult Community Team.

As a young man, Jeremiah worked as a farmer to support his family. He also worked as a mason whenever he was called or needed. Jeremiah enjoyed being around people and always was ready to have a good time. He was a great father and loved to spend time with his children as much as he could.

Because of his love for his children, Jeremiah migrated to America to make a better life for his family in the early seventies. He worked for AT&T Bell laboratories and retired after twenty-five years of service. He received awards for nine consecutive years of perfect attendance. So as you can see, he was determined to be a positive role model for his family.

Jeremiah leaves to mourn and cherish his memories: his children, Delores, Lloyd Carolyn, Anthony, & Clifton McDermott; ten grandchildren; his sisters, Winnie, Sweet & Peaches; his brother, Clifen McDermott; and a host of nieces, nephew and other relatives and friends.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
