Obituary

Kathy Gail Smith was born to the late Willie Smith and Hazel Williams. She departed this life to be with the Lord on Saturday, February 23, 2013, at Montefiore Hospital in Bronx, New York.

She received her education at Theodore Roosevelt High School. After school she was an employee at Sears, at an early age. Later in life she became a clinical secretary at St. Luke's Hospital.

Kathy became ill and had to retire. She spent her time traveling and loving her life.

Kathy joined Solomon Temple Baptist Church and started to become an usher, but her health wouldn't let her. She was a loving person, sister, auntie and friend. She was a second mother to her sister's children. She loved her family and would do anything for them.

Kathy G. Smith is survived by: one sister, Peggy Williams-Campbell of Bronx, New York; four brothers, Ernest (Ven), Ronnie (Mona) Williams all of Baltimore, MD, Willie C. Smith (Ellen) and John E. Smith of Maryland; a special god-daughter; one niece, Natasha Williams (Tyrell); one half niece, Trina (Steve) Winston; three nephews, Clifton and Roosevelt Crosby all of Bronx, New York and Dion Smith of Maryland; one late nephew, Jason Williams; one great nephew, Tyrell J. Hubbard; two half great nephews, Zion and Kotez Watson; one great niece, Taraji K. Hubbard; one uncle, John D. McLean of New York, NY; one aunt, Elizabeth Maynor of Dunn, NC; and a host of very special friends, Cynthia, Edward and childhood friends, Nadine and Pamela Cornelius; and a host of relatives and friends that will always keep her alive in their hearts. Least but not forgotten, Rachel Smith, her step-mother as well as a good friend.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
