Reflections of Life

"Precious in the sight of the death of His Saints"
Psalms 116:15

Dorothy J. Cameron was born September 12, 1917 in Augusta, Georgia to the late Marion and Celeste Hughes. She departed this life on Saturday, March 2, 2013 at the Jewish Home Lifecare Center in Manhattan, NY. Her two siblings preceded her in death.

Dorothy graduated from the Lucy Laney Industrial Institute in Augusta and relocated to New York in 1937.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Cornell E. Cameron in 1939 and from this union was born their daughter, Joyce. In 1947, she graduated from Apex Beauty College. She retired in 1985 from the Evelyn Pierson Company.

Dorothy became a member of Convent Avenue Baptist Church in 1986. She was a faithful member and attended Sunday School Class A1 until her health failed.

Dorothy enjoyed sewing and traveling.

She is survived by one daughter, Joyce, several cousins and many friends.

"And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away."

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

A Mother's Love

A mother's love is everlasting though the flesh is gone. The memories of joy and laughter will still live on I will always miss your voice and your presence I will remember all of the times we shared. Don't worry I will move on as I get in my car listening to your favorite song, "I Got Love On My Mind" - I know life still goes on as I start my days and end my nights my mother's love will embrace me tight. Feeling your presence and knowing you're there letting me know I have nothing to fear. I will then close my eyes and squeeze real tight then I will have a good sleep.
