Obituary

Juanita Farrar (born Johnina Farrar) entered into eternal rest on Saturday, March 16, 2013. She was born in Newark, New Jersey to the wedded union of Alice E. Morton Farrar and John Haskins Farrar on August 14, 1950.

Juanita was educated in the Newark School system. She attended Cleveland Elementary School and Weequahic High School.

Juanita was a very talented hairdresser and worked for Miss Eva's Beauty Salon for many years. She then changed vocations, attended business school worked for BNP PARIBAS in New York City for twenty-five years until her retirement

She was extremely talented in many, many ways, an excellent seamstress, hairdresser and a wonderful cook (favorite recipes were Beer Can Chicken, THE best collard greens in town! And her seafood stuffing was out-of-this world)

She loved her family and was always there for them, whatever the occasion!

She was affectionately nick named "Nina" because her Uncle Gene said she resembled Nina Simone. She loved music and dancing. Michael Jackson could do no wrong by her standards. She suffered her illness with great dignity and strength. Nina you will be sorely missed by those who love you. So long for now, we will see you in the Rapture. Go with God.

She leaves to cherish her memory: two nieces, Michelle Farrar and Sekina Fantroy and one great nephew, Eric Farrar; two god-children, LaKeisha T. Farrar Williams and Maurice Farrar; one god-sister and her daughter, Priscilla and Jasmine Spann; and a host of beloved relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father, John H. Farrar, her mother, Alice Farrar, her sisters, Lake Yvonne Farrar and Toni Denise Fantroy.

Hush Now... We'll Meet Again!

*When Jesus comes riding on a cloud
And they crown Him King of Kings
We'll join in with the Heavenly Choir
And to His Glory we shall sing!*

*Lord! What a day that's gone be
When all the Saints in Christ shall rise
But til then....I'm tired child
So let me rest my eyes.*

*Go on....shed a tear or two
For even Jesus wept!*

*But don't you cry too long
For every promise shall be kept.*

He promised we'd meet again on the other side.

*Make choices that will please the Lord
Let His word in you abide!*

*So....Hush now my darlings
For I'll be always at your side
And someday we'll say howdy-howdy
And never again goodbye!*

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever
