Obituary

Ethel D. Reinford was born on January 12, 1930 in Charleston, South Carolina to the late James and Ethel Bolton. Ethel went home to rest on March 19, 2013.

Ethel was educated in the New York City Public School system.

Ethel met and married her high school sweetheart, the late Vincent Lawrence Reinford. Their union produced their one and only child Cyril.

Ethel was employed with New York State Insurance Fund. Her career spanned over thirty years. She retired in 2004 to relax and enjoy her golden years.

Ethel was fond of having a good time and traveling with her son to Orlando, FL annually. She also enjoyed seafood, good conversations and more times than would not hesitate to use “salty language.”

Ethel was a strong, independent woman.

Ethel leaves to mourn: one son, Cyril Reinford; seven nieces, Veronica Whaley, Cheryl Wiggins, Saundra Wray, Ronda Wray, Deborah Wray, Michelle Wray and Evette David; three nephews, Vernon David, Joseph David and Rubin David; she also leaves to mourn a host of great-nieces and nephews and a plethora of friends. She will be greatly missed.

As The Sun Begins To Set

*As the sun begins to set,
and the day comes to an end.
Precious memories of your life
We will cherish so deep within.*

*Your life was an inspiration.
You touched so many lives,
And we're truly going to miss you,
through all the tears we cry.*

*But joy comes in the morning,
Just to know you're at Heavenly rest.
With God and all His angels,
Because you were the very best.*
