Obituary

Delores Ford affectionately known as “Poochie” by her sister and “Mommy” by her family was born on December 27, 1963 to the late Ellen Ford and Loren Lumpkin in New York City. She was raised most of her life in Harlem, New York and graduated from Brandis High School.

Delores worked as a Security Guard but because of her caring nature she was led to pursue a career as a home health aide. She loved helping people up to the time of her unfortunate kidney illness in which required her to get dialysis treatments. She had a wonderful memory for birthdays, other dates, people and places. She often could recall events that happened early in her childhood and treasured her time with family.

At the time of her passing on March 15, 2013, Delores was residing in Chapin Home For The Aging. The staff often spoke well of her and she was known for always smiling.

Delores leaves to cherish her memories: sister, Diane Rolle; brother, Arthur Ford; her nephews, James T. Holloway and Jamel T. Rolle.

Job 14:14-15

If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?

*All the days of
my compulsory service*

I shall wait, Until my relief comes.

You will call, and I myself shall answer you.

For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.

1 John 3:1-2 1

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life-- 2 the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us—
