Obituary

Jeanine Miller Henry was born on February 11, 1970 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at Women's Medical. She departed this life on March 19, 2013 and joins her late son Anthony. Jeanine graduated from Princeton High School in 1988 as a straight "A" student and later attended and graduated from the business school at the Cittone Institute, Jeanine's career spanned over twenty years working first at the YMCA - Princeton then for the Susan G. Komen for the Cure organization as Assistant Director of Finance. She was part of the Race for the Cure from the beginning in 1994 and was instrumental in its incredible growth and success. As Office and Finance Manager, Jeanine was engaging and friendly to everyone who visited or called the office. All the volunteers remarked on how helpful Jeanine was and how she made their time with Komen fun. Jeanine had a special knack for making everyone around her feel important. She will be remembered most by her Komen family for her warm smile, genuine nature and big "Hello's" and will be deeply missed by her colleagues, Komen supporters and the many breast cancer survivors whose lives she touched.

Jeanine is survived by: her husband, Kevin; parents, Ruth and Ronald; two grandchildren, Imani and Imauri; one sister, Sharon; two brothers, Lamont and Jason; three aunts, Deloris, Connie and Shirley; one uncle, Lindsey; three nieces, Medina, Kenya and Shawna; two nephews, Shawn and Jayson, Jr.; her father-in-law, Leroy; her brother-in-law, Keith; and many other relatives and friends.

We smile from the thought of your name and find joy knowing you have no more pain my friend, my sister, my strength. Jesus brought you home as a new beginning not as the end. Forgetting you would be to forget myself. Just as standing for you is like standing for myself. God returned you home to be with your son: smile again my angel for I eternally know we are one.

Jeanine was the most loving and caring person in the world. She stuck with you no matter what the situation was, she had a forgiving heart, no matter what someone did she never held a grudge. Jeanine was the perfect mother, friend and most of all a perfect wife. She was the best thing that ever happened to me. She is the one who made me the person I am today. I will always love you from the bottom of my heart and you will be dearly missed. I love you and want you to rest in peace.

*Love Your Husband,
Kevin*

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!*
