Obituary

Amos Johnson the son of the late Ned and Katie Johnson was born on November 27, 1922 in Okatie, South Carolina, where he was also baptized. At the completion of his schooling, Amos entered the military serving with the US Army as a flagman, who is a person that distributes all military ammunition.

While serving his country Amos received the EAME campaign medal, Bronze service stars and World War II Victory medals. He received an honorable discharge in 1945. In 1950, Amos was united in holy matrimony to Lula Lewis (deceased), the love of his life for 62 years. No children by this unity, however they both had children which became their children with all the love and understanding of a parent.

Amos was a very loving husband, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He quietly went home to glory on Monday, March 25th, 2013 at 6:35am at Beth Abraham nursing home.

His legacy will be carried on by: his daughter Barbara Johnson (NYC); sons, Rev Freddie Dixon (SC) and Edward Evans (NYC); grandchildren, Kisha, Kim, Darrin, Tammy, Derick, Darrina, Edward Jr., and Alexiev; great-grandchildren, Kiara, Demeitris, Destiny, Derick Jr., Edward III, Mitchell, Maxwell, Myleek, Camron and Ramel; a devoted sister-in-law, Juanita Williams; and best bud, Louis Mitchell; along with a host of other relatives and friends.

"I Love You Dad"

*What can I say To someone who has always been one of the most essential parts of my world Who stood by me, providing love, strength and support,
So I could become the person
I am today.*

As I have always said to you Dad you are the best there is and that I hope I have inherited some of your wisdom and strength.

*I love you Dad
Your Daughter, Barbara*
