Reflections of Life

Clifford Mack known lovingly to his family and friends as "Charlie" was born on December 4, 1928 to the late Gladys and Clifford Mack.

Charlie was the eldest of eight siblings; Melvin, Ronald and Gladys all of whom are deceased.

He is survived by his brothers, Christopher and Carl. His sisters, Olivia and Debra; as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. We will all miss him dearly.

Charlie grew up in in Harlem, New York where he attended school and later went on to work at Harlem Hospital in his early adult life.

In the early 60's he married Audrey and they remained longtime friends until her demise.

Later in life, Charlie moved to the Bronx and worked for Faberware Inc, until he retired in the late 1980's.

Fond memories of Charlie include his love for cowboy and gangster movies and his enjoyment for a good horse race from time to time.

Forever in our hearts we will remember Charlie for his broad smile, his robust laughter and most of all his love and concern for his family.

I Am Resting

*I've parted this life my loved one,
But worry not for I am not gone,
I am merely resting.
Don't cry or mourn
For God is with you and in your hearts.
Carry on.
We will miss each other,
But remember God is with us all.
Be strong my loved one,
For I am not gone,
but merely resting.*

Acknowledgement

The family wishes to express their deepest appreciation and sincere thanks for all acts of kindness shown to them in their time of sorrow.
