Reflections of Life

Sylvia Jones was born February 26, 1931 in New York City she was the only child of Sarah Harrison and Reinhart Miller.

Sylvia was educated in New York City public school system graduating from Jane Adams High School in the Bronx. On February 27, 1965 she married Eugene E. Jones and from this union one son Kenneth was born.

She worked at Bellevue Hospital for many years and she was very active in the community. She was a member of the 42nd Precinct Community Council (Bronx) and the MBD Civilian Crime Prevention Program.

Sylvia was a very religious, spiritual, and God fearing woman who loved her family dearly, and her pet dogs and cats.

Sylvia is survived by her loving son, Kenneth Jones, daughter-in-law Marva Jones; one granddaughter Jaznelle; one aunt Carrie Walker; a host of cousins other relatives and friends.

Life

Life is but a stopping place
A pause in what's to be.
A resting place along the road
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys,
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn
Some things,
But never meant to stay.
Our destination is a place
Far greater than we know,
For some, the journey's quicker.
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.
