

My Thank You Letter To Dad

Thank you for showing me by example what true love, commitment and standing by someone's side to the end means. You were mommy's legs when she could not stand and the arms that lifted her up when she got weak. Thank you Dad for passing on to me your healthy appetite, and healthy sense of humor. Thank you Dad for instilling in both Derek Sr. and Derek Jr. your gentlemanly ways with your handshake greetings and strong work ethic. Don't worry now, you can rest we will be Mommy's legs when she can't stand and the arms to lift her up when she gets weak. For all these things and more I say thank you.

All Our Love Till We Meet Again.

Obituary

Frederick M. DuBose was born on May 24, 1933, in Washington, GA to the late Uriah DuBose Sr. and Rachel DuBose. He went home to be with the Lord on March 30, 2013. He was predeceased by his brother, Uriah DuBose Jr., Sisters, Elizabeth Hooker, Rachel McNeil and Mary E. Robinson.

Frederick completed his elementary education at P.S. #14, graduated from Snyder High School and attended Fairleigh Dickinson University.

Frederick worked at Western Electric for fourteen years. He worked at and retired from the United States Postal Service after over thirty years of service.

He was the devoted husband of fifty plus years to Yvonne DuBose; proud father to Derek M. DuBose Sr. and Michelle Y. DuBose; one grandson, Derek M. DuBose Jr. He is survived by a host of loving nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.
