Obituary

Dr. Robert Zebulin Carey was born on the 28th of August 1944. After living courageously with cancer, he passed away graciously on March 30th, 2013 at Calvary Hospital.

Robert was born in White Plains, New York to Bernard Carey and Pearl Rush, where he grew up in and around the New York area. After serving his country in Vietnam, he went on to attend Long Island University, where he received his BS Degree in Chemistry. Thereafter he graduated with a Doctorate of Medicine from Howard University College of Medicine in 1976.

He completed his residency at Our Lady of Mercy Medical Center and continued practicing as an Internist Specializing in Oncology and Hematology in his own private practice and in conjunction with New York's major hospitals. At the end of his tenure he presided at Harlem Hospital and was an instructor at Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons. For over thirty-seven years Robert practiced medicine in his quiet unassuming way. He was a dedicated physician believing in the dignity of his patients, the healing of the sick and the humility of servitude.

He was a quiet, soft spoken man, whose hallmark was his deliberate kindness and sparkling intellect. In the bigness of things we will miss his gentleness of spirit and comforting simplicity. He found great happiness in his lifelong commitment to the Church of God and Saints of Christ, where he was a devout member who lent himself freely to his church and taught Sabbath School.

Robert is survived by: his devoted wife, Crystal; his loving children, Derrick and Shannon Pridgen; and Charles and Corey Carey; He was the eldest of his siblings and will be greatly missed by his sisters, Bonita Clifton, Susan Young and Pamela Rush; his brothers, Joseph Rush and David Carey; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

We are deeply grateful to the RPA-C. Angelo Aiello, wife and family and the staff at Harlem Hospital for their extraordinary comradely and friendship.

Psalm 23

The Lord is My Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the path of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies. Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
