Obituary

Rachel Anderson Redmond was born September 27, 1922 in Macon, Georgia. She was the daughter of the late William and Annie Anderson.

She graduated from Phyllis Wheatley High School, Macon, GA, in 1940. After graduation, she relocated to Paterson, New Jersey in 1942 where she later met Bennie Redmond. They were married after a long courtship and made their home in Newark, NJ.

Rachel loved the Lord and was a longtime member of Zion Hill Baptist Church in Newark, NJ. She loved spending time with her sisters and brother, enjoying a METS game (especially when they were winning). She also loved fashion and dressing nicely every day. She lived life to the fullest.

Rachel departed this life on April 4, 2013 after a long illness.

She leaves behind those who will cherish her memory forever including her sister, Belle Higgs of Laurel, MD.

I Am Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard Him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day.

To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it up with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh, yes these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life's been full, I savored much.

Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.

Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free!

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.
