Brian,

You brought so much joy to others,

Oh, my big/little brother.

After mommy went home,

It's like I became your mother.

*Although at points there was some bitterness and strife,
but somehow always managed to "Live In the High Life."*

*I would always leave the back door unlocked for you,
Because I never knew what your crazy self was going to do.
How I wish I could hear "I Love you sis you got any money?"*

These words bring tears to my heart now when before I thought they were always funny.

Brian, I'm already missing you, when I need a shoulder or a hug, who will I run to? I spoke on the phone everyday with you, Sometimes just only to say These Three Words, I Love You!

*You were a big man, inside and out,
you possessed so many good qualities
most people didn't even know about.*

You played so many roles in my life-confidant, brother, friend, protector and son.

I know this had to be God's plan from day one.

*Carla may not fully understand where you are,
but I will ALWAYS remind her that you are not far.*

So you can go on now Brian Keith Coleman and show off those pretty eyes and smile (don't be shy).

*Just know that this is not a final farewell,
but a temporary goodbye. I love you endlessly.*

~ Your big sis, Connie and Friend Kimberly
