

Even Nearer To Thee

*Nearer my God to thee
Evermore shall we all be
Whether in life or death each must come,
And see if we have a place at your throne.*

*We take you so much for granted.
Heavenly father you watch as we rave and rant.
There's nothing on earth we can take when we leave.
Yet we work and slave and over things grieve.*

*You placed each one of us here on earth.
You alone know our true worth.
Will we try to fulfill the plan you made?
Will idleness take us to an early grave?*

*You told us to be fruitful and multiply.
What comes to my mind is with your help I'll try.
I'll let others know you would all have salvation
In this life they can find restoration.*

*To your bosom we will all be drawn,
And be able to live eternally in your arms.
We have come to find peace that lasts.
You removed all sin from our past.*

Good Bye Family

*Good Bye family I had to go
But there's something I want you to know I enjoyed you while I had life I had to cross over with my father Jesus Christ. Don't you cry, don't shed a tear
Just look up and my love will appear
So good bye daughter, good bye son
O don't let me forget my little one I'll see you soon one day Just remember I am OK Go on and live your life You will soon cross over with Jesus Christ Don't weep or mourn because you will all Be called home, Good Bye,
Good Bye Love you all. Just remember don't let my death let you fall Hold on,
hold on tight I'll see you soon,
Goodnight.*

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a floral piece If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words as any friend could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all just thought of us on that day.
Whatever you did to console our hearts, We Thank You, Whatever the part.

Obituary

Shirley Mae Cobb born (Shirley Mae Hall) entered into eternal rest on Sunday, April 7, 2013. She was born in Newark, New Jersey to the late Mary Lou and James Hall on April 15, 1944.

Shirley was educated in the Newark School system. For her formative years, she graduated from Lincoln High School in Leland, North Carolina, where she met and married Henry L. Cobb, Sr. Of this union three children were born Henry L. Cobb, Jr., Michael Cobb and Doris.

Shirley completed her adult education at Essex County College, while her children were young. She worked for many years at Kraft Food Company, Goody Beauty Products and then at Lyons Farm. While working at Lyons Farm, she met and married Charles Gibson (predeceased).

In the early 90's, Shirley moved to Arizona for several years, where she worked for American Express. Upon returning to New Jersey she went to work at Home Depot as a Customer Service Rep in the Special Orders Department.

Shirley was a fun loving, family oriented person. She along with her brothers and sisters would get together weekly for games of cards. She loved to travel, domestically and internationally. But her favorite place was Las Vegas, where she went often until it had become too painful for her to travel long distances. At which point she began frequenting local casinos, whenever her brother would take her.

She loved to read and her favorite channel to watch was ID TV. Shirley also loved to cook when she was able, because there wasn't a food or dish she didn't like.

She was preceded in death by sons, Henry L. Cobb, Jr. (Wanda) and Michael C. Cobb, Sr. (Dominica), brother, Eugene Hall and grandson, Henry L. Cobb III.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Doris Guess (Tariq); twelve grandchildren, Charles, Francesca, LaCresha, Amber, Ashley, Maurice, Lorne, Michael, Monae, Michelle, Shanice and Jasper; eight great grandchildren; brothers and sisters, James Hall, Jr. (Alberta), Mary Ellis (Leroy), Marguite Hatcher, William Hall; aunts and uncles, Bessie Lewis, Geraldine Fields, Ella Everett and Robert Everett; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
