Reflections of Life

Ms. Leslie C. Jones daughter of Elizabeth Malloy Jones and the late Hollis I. Jones was born on August 4, 1966 in Bronx, New York.

Leslie attended elementary school 55x in the Bronx. She later attended Charles R. Drew (CIS 148). After graduating, she attended William Howard Taft High School.

After completing her grad school education, Leslie went on to work as a Home Care Worker in which she cared for the sick and the elderly. Leslie loved caring for those who were not able to take care of themselves. She worked as a care giver for her mother as well. In the words of her mother “Leslie was my hands my feet and my eyes, she was my everything.” Leslie helped her sister with the rearing of their children. All the kids loved Lez. In her spare time she loved playing handball, dancing listening to Mary Mary and Reggae. She will truly be missed.

On April 18 God called Leslie home to rest, exchanging her earthly life to eternal life. She leaves to cherish her memory her beloved mother Elizabeth Jones; three sisters, Deborah (Willie) Silver, Darlene Jones, and Lynette Jones; two brothers, Hollis Michael Jones and Mario Jones (Sandy); foster son/nephew, Nekai Craddock; four nieces, Shavonne, Quinasha, Nicole and Shaleesa; nine nephews Dwayne, Wayne, Timothy, Jarmel, Ryan, Malcolm, Mario Jr., Josiah, and Jaylen; six great-nephews, Kevin, Damani Raydon, Nekai, Ziah, and Lorenzo, three great-nieces, Kerra, Deasia and Brianna; two aunts, one uncle, other relatives and a host of cousins and friends. She also leaves a few lifelong friends Lillian, Sheila, Rosa, Annette (Yum-Yum) and Josephine that she has known for more than thirty years.

Sleep On Dear Leslie

Sleep on dear Leslie take your rest, we will always love you but God loves you best. He lent you to us for a little while then He reclaimed you as his child. In the presence of the Lord there is a fullness of joy. We know that you are in good hands. Until we see you again, Leslie, we will cherish our memories of you.

Acknowledgement

We the family of the late Leslie Jones would like to extend our deepest gratitude for all of your words of kindness, your show of love, and your continued prayers during our time of bereavement. May God bless and keep you.
