Obituary

Helen Jean Gregory was born May 2, 1935 in Houston, Texas. She departed this life on Monday, April 29, 2013 peacefully at home.

She was a resident of Orange, NJ for forty-eight years and was employed by White House Nursing Home of Orange for eighteen years, where she worked as an Certified Nurses Assistant before retiring.

Helen lived her life by the principal, where there is life, there is hope. She always strove to do her best and help where she was needed and to over come any of life's challenges with a smile and a prayer to God.

She was a loving and caring wife, mother, and compassionate member of her family that she loved devotedly.

Helen was predeceased by her daughters, Deborah Hammonds and Sharyn Booker-Gregory.

Helen leaves to cherish her memory: her loving husband, Albert Gregory; son, Arthur Lee Gregory; eleven grandchildren; seven great grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Togetherness

Death is nothing at all - I have only slipped away into the next room. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name, speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be the household word it always was. Let it be spoken without effort. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was: there is absolutely unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of your mind because I am out of your sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well. Nothing is past: nothing is lost. One brief moment and all will be as before — only better, infinitely happier and forever we will all be one together with Christ.
