Reflections of Life

Ms. Azielee Carter was born on February 9, 1935 to Phyllis Champion and Arthur Carter in Kershaw, South Carolina.

Azielee received her formal education through the South Carolina Public School District System. She received additional academic achievement through Passaic County Institute of Higher Learning.

Sister Carter joined Grace Chapel Baptist Church, Paterson, NJ in 1966 under Christian experience. She served as a faithful member for many years. She served on the florist circle and was appointed president of the Pastor Vacation Club under the leadership of the late Reverend Weldon McWilliams Sr.

Azielee was employed for Paterson, New Jersey Universal Factory for seventeen years, she continue her career at Memorial Day Care Center for several years. She completed her career as a Home Aide worker before retiring in 2005.

In her leisure, she enjoyed singing in the church choir, sharing the good news of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as well as spending time with her grandson.

She was preceded in death by her loving parents; Phyllis Carter and Arthur Carter, two sisters; Sadie Carter and Mary Carter, five brothers, Willie Roy Carter, Wardell Carter Sr., George Carter, A.D Carter, and Furman Carter.

She leaves to cherish precious memory: one daughter, Mrs. Valerie Carter-Howard; one grandson, Charles J. Howard; two sisters, Mrs. Willie Mae Mace and Ms. Patricia Kelly; along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little-but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me-but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at the things we use to do
Miss me-but let me go.*
