Obituary

Alma Williams was born on August 17, 1933 in Beaufort, SC to the late Ruth and Calvin Martin. On April 25, 2013, God summoned for her and gently carried her from labor to reward. Alma joins her late husband, John Williams, parents, Ruth and Calvin Martin, son, Archie Williams and brother, Calvin Martin, Jr. in glory.

Alma relocated to New York City with her husband at an early age. She was a homemaker, devoting her heart, soul and time to raising and nurturing her children and maintaining her household.

She was a member of Glendale Baptist Church where she began her personal journey with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Alma was famous for her southern style cooking, warm personality and ability to make others laugh. She was a caring and loving person who welcomed all with open arms.

Alma is survived by: her children, Levi Williams (Annette), Abdul Muhammad, Raphael Williams (Makada), Audrey Williams, Patricia Mack (Ernest), James Mack (Nashae), Carlotta Mack-Osinowo (Ayo); siblings, Martha Coakley, Rosella Habersham, Vernell Martin, Daisy Martin and Joseph Martin (Agnes); twenty-one grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins; and a host of other family members and friends.

The Master Called

I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.
