Reflections of Life

Sigrid Lynn Milton was born December 4, 1944 to the proud parents of John and Sigrid Staton in New York.

Sigrid was affectionately called "Lynn". After graduating from High School she attended and graduated from Virginia Union College where she was an Honor student and was on the Dean's List.

She loved teaching it was her passion. She taught in the New York City public school system and eventually transferred to the Catskills, New York school system where she taught for 18 years.

She was a committed member of the NAACP and Alvin Alley, and enjoyed watching them dance.

Sigrid was loved by many and will be greatly missed. She had two brothers John and Reese who predeceased her. She leaves to mourn her mother Sigrid Sanders; sister-in-law, Debbie Sanders; one niece Jennifer; other relatives, friends and her extended family of teachers.

The Master Called

*I'm sorry I had to leave you.
My loved ones, oh so dear.
But you see, the Master called me,
His voice was very clear!
I had made my reservation
A heaven bound ticket for one,
And I knew that He would call me
When He felt my work was done.
I know that your hearts are heavy
Because I have gone away,
But when the Master called me,
I knew that I could not stay.
Yes, I'm sorry I had to leave you
My loved ones, oh so dear,
But, you see, the Master called me
And, now I'm resting here.
Yes, I've crossed on over to glory
And to you all I say
Just stay in the hands of Jesus
And we'll meet again someday.*
