Reflections of Life

Arnel Lebby, 51, of Hartford, Connecticut, was born September 18, 1961 in Harlem Hospital located in Harlem, New York to the late George and Beverly Lebby. He departed this earth on April 10, 2013 in Gambia, West Africa.

His education began at the All Saints Catholic School and later attended John F. Kennedy High School where he graduated. Upon graduation he attended Cheney State University located in West Chester, Pennsylvania where he studied Social Sciences. Furthering his education he attended Culinary Arts School where he learned his cooking skills and began his career as a Chef. He later went to run his own catering business.

Arnel met and married Cynthia Berry and gave birth to three children, Arnel Colby, Brittany, and Cara.

"Arnel's main passion was cooking. He was often called upon to be the grill master at every cookout sharing jokes with his family and friends. One of his joys in life was visiting the motherland of Africa. During his nine years of visiting Africa he has touched many lives including children that he has helped to get books, pencils and other school supplies to help them get a quality education. He was also known for his kind encounters with the Gambian locals."

Arnel leaves to mourn his passing: four children, Arnel Colby Lebby, Courtney Lauray, Brittany Lebby and Cara Lebby. As well as three sisters, Cheryl, Tracey and Uneeda along with Aunt Binta and nieces, Alicia and Shaniya, nephews, Myron, Zaquan, Jaden and Tyler; and a host of relatives and friends.

Good Night, Good Morning

When comes the weary a blessed relief. When upward we pass to His Kingdom of peace. When free from the woes that on earth we must bear. We'll say goodnight here, but good morning up there. When fadeth the day and dark shadows draw night With Christ close at hand it's not death to die. He wipes every tear, rolls away every care. And we'll say goodnight here and good morning there. When home lights we see shining brightly above. Where we shall be soon through His wonderful love. We'll praise Him who calls us His heaven to share. We'll say goodnight here, and good morning there. Good morning up there when Christ is the light. Good morning up there where cometh no night. When we step from this Earth to God's heaven so fair, We'll say good night here, good morning there.
